2008 SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Hardie Grant Egmont will consider fabulously charming proposals for fiction and non-fiction books aimed at the general kids' market.

Before submitting your manuscript, please consider the following guidelines carefully.

Submitting your manuscript

Your submission must enclose the following:

1. A dated cover letter that demonstrates:
  - An understanding of your proposed audience.
  - Knowledge of the competition and an explanation of how the book fits in with the existing market (in what way is it better than or different to what's already been published?)
  - An outline of any previous publications.
2. A one-page synopsis of your story proposal.
3. A sample of your writing (no more than 1,000 words). If relevant, you can include two copies of sample illustrations (but please do not send originals).

Your submission must be typed and pages numbered.

Electronic submissions can be sent to: submissions@hardiegrantegmont.com.au

Hard copy submissions can be sent to:

The Submissions Editor
Hardie Grant Egmont
85 High Street
Prahran VIC 3181

Please ensure that you retain a copy of your manuscript. If you would like your manuscript returned, please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Our response

In most cases, you should hear from us within twelve weeks, although it may be longer at certain times of the year. You will be advised in writing when your submission has been assessed. Please note that we do not offer manuscript assessment services.
